HELP WANTED!

IT IS NOT TOO LATE TO BECOME A POLL WORKER!

SIGN-UP TODAY!

There is still time to become a Precinct Election Official (i.e., poll worker)! The Hamilton County Board of Elections is hiring Precinct Election Officials. Precinct Election Officials earn $181.50 (including training, Monday set-up and Election Day). We offer morning, afternoon, evening, and Saturday training classes. You must be a registered and active voter in Hamilton County, and you cannot have a felony conviction.

There are openings throughout the county. Our greatest needs for Democratic assigned workers are in Anderson TWP, Green TWP, Harrison TWP, Miami TWP, and the City of Loveland. Our greatest needs for Republican assigned workers are in the cities of Cincinnati, Forest Park, and Springdale. You do not have to live in those communities to work the polls in those areas.

Apply online today, or for more information please go to our website or contact our PEO Department at 513-632-7041 (for Democratic) or 513-632-7042 (for Republican).
