Issue 1 PROPOSED CHARTER AMENDMENT CITY OF INDIAN HILL

A majority affirmative vote is necessary for passage.

The Charter Review Committee for the City of the Village of Indian Hill (the "Village") recommends the following changes:

- Insertion of Article and Section headings, addition of a table of contents, and reorganization throughout.
- Removal or replacement of gender specific pronouns with gender neutral references.
- Ensure consistency in naming, numbering, and capitalization throughout. Remove obsolete provisions referring to position of Treasurer.
- Article 3, Section 3.2 and Article 4, Section 4.1 Reduce the timeframe for ordinances to become effective to 30 days unless passed as an emergency.
- Article 4, Section 4.2 Clarify the involvement of the County Board of Elections in the petition initiative and referendum processes.
- Article 5 Update to account for the current population of the Village.
- Article 6, Sections 6.3-6.5 Increase threshold contract amounts within the Charter and clarify certain provisions within the budgeting, purchasing, and contract processes.
- Article 6, Section 6.4 Allow the Village to establish the circumstances to go out to bid before purchasing.
- Article 6, Section 6.5 Permit a supermajority of Council to dispose of real property outside the public bid process.
- Article 9 Reaffirm the authority of the Village to establish or contract with an entity to provide police and fire services, acknowledging that the entity providing police services shall always be known as the Indian Hill Rangers.
