TOMORROW IS ELECTION DAY IN HAMILTON COUNTY

Hamilton County, OH – Polls will be open tomorrow, Tuesday, for the August 8th Special Election from 6:30 a.m. until 7:30 p.m. A new Ohio Law requires that voters present a photo ID when voting in person so make sure you know the requirements before coming out to vote. Visit the Board of Elections website at www.votehamiltoncountyohio.gov to view a list of the acceptable forms of ID and to find your Election Day polling place.

“The August 8th Special Election is a county-wide election, so all Hamilton County communities will be voting on Tuesday. All registered voters should have received a post card notice by mail from the BOE with their August 2023 polling location. Voters can visit the Board’s website to view new ID requirements to vote and can also view a sample ballot before heading to the polls,” says Director Sherry Poland.

Only voters who have moved out of their precinct and have not yet updated their new address with the Board of Elections may vote at the Board office tomorrow. All others must vote at their assigned polling location.

“If you have not yet returned your voted absentee Vote by Mail ballot, you have until 7:30pm on Election Day to return it in person to the Board of Elections,” adds Deputy Director Alex Linser. “We have a convenient and secure 24-hour drive-through drop box at 4700 Smith Road in Norwood.”

Voted ballots being returned by mail must be postmarked no later than today, Monday, August 7, 2023.

Once the polls close at 7:30pm, voters can track Election Results live on our website, votehamiltoncountyohio.gov.
