ELECTION DAY IS TOMORROW FOR VOTERS THROUGHOUT HAMILTON COUNTY

Hamilton County, OH – Polls will be open throughout Hamilton County tomorrow, Tuesday, May 6th for the Primary/Special Election from 6:30 am until 7:30 pm.

Early Voting ended on Sunday. There is no in-person voting at the Board of Elections today, May 5th.

“Voters can visit the Board’s website to confirm their Election Day polling location, view a list of valid forms of identification, and view a sample ballot before heading to the polls,” says Director Sherry Poland.

Ohio identification requirements have not changed for voting in the May 6th Primary/Special Election. Visit votehamiltoncountyohio.gov to view a list of the acceptable forms of ID (see chart attached). Ohio’s new mobile ID is NOT an acceptable ID for voting purposes.

Only voters who have moved out of their precinct and have not yet updated their new address with the Board of Elections may vote at the Board’s Early Vote Center (4700 Smith Rd, Norwood) tomorrow. All others must vote at their assigned Election Day polling location.

“If you have not yet returned your voted absentee Vote by Mail ballot, you have until 7:30pm on Election Day to return it in person to the Board of Elections,” adds Deputy Director Raquel Burgos. “We have a convenient and secure 24-hour drive-through drop box at 4700 Smith Road in Norwood.”

If you are dropping off a voted ballot on behalf of a family member or disabled voter, you will need to come to the Board’s main office during business hours today - or tomorrow before 7:30pm - to drop off the ballot and fill out a 12-P Form.

Voted ballots being returned by mail must be postmarked no later than today, Monday, May 5th, 2025, and must be received at the Board by Saturday, May 10th, 2025.

Once the polls close at 7:30pm, voters can track Election Results live on our website, votehamiltoncountyohio.gov/results/.
